Dear Mr. Williams,

I am so personally encouraged by your mercy and concern for our World Children's Fund outreaches to help the needy and suffering. Thank you so very much for your urgently needed donation of £50.00.

Because of your humanitarian heart and benevolent concern for the precious, innocent children, our charitable work is possible. And without you—it cannot be done. I have worked these many, many years in dedicated service for the less fortunate; and every year that passes, joy and peace continue to fill my soul. Giving hope and changing the lives of these little ones are reward enough for my heart.

Most of our support is been focused on helping the poorest of poor children in Third World countries because the needs are so horrific and at times overwhelming. Many thousands are waiting for more life saving relief especially in Africa where famine, civil strife, disease and even genocide in Darfur are absolutely heartbreaking. Little children are waiting for additional help as I write this letter and your continued, kind help is so necessary and vital for us to continue.

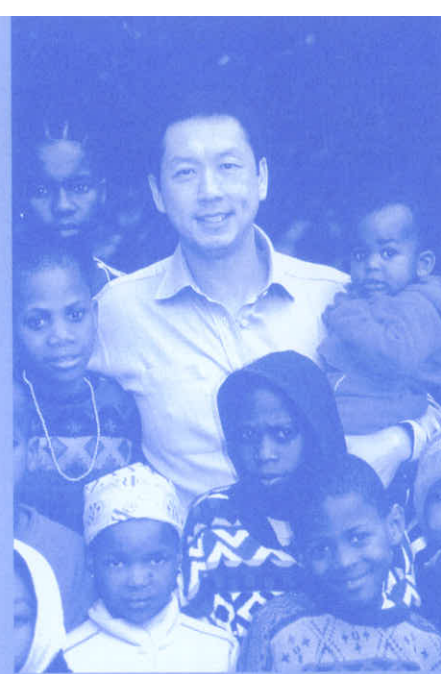

Mere words could never be adequate enough to express what your part in this charitable outreach means—your part is immense in the overall future of the suffering children and our WCF programmes.

Thank you for your continued encouragement in these ongoing, challenging needs throughout the world. We appreciate your participation in our programmes for the children.

Sincerely for the children,

Dr. Joseph Lam, Chairman

P.S: Children need your help. Please use the reply form hereunder to continue to support them. Thank you.
